

CEOs have come under fire in recent years. Because of their illegal business deals, cover-ups and court cases, we have come to think of them, not as gifted managers, but as greedy opportunists. There is a sense in which we as Christians are all called to be CEOs – CEOs of our own personal lives. Our Great King calls us to be faithful stewards of our time, talent and treasure to extend His Kingdom. Thankfully, He does not ask us to manage alone, but our effectiveness is directly tied to our faithfulness with what He supplies. Raymond L.
